

Fourteen Young Americans Making History

Meet the next generation of leaders, all under the age of 30, who are making a difference in the world.

In a time of great uncertainty and change, it can be easy to lose hope. But there is hope, and it comes in the form of the next generation of leaders. These young Americans, all under the age of 30, are using their voices and talents to make a positive impact on the world.

They are fighting for climate justice, social justice, and economic justice. They are working to create a more equitable and sustainable world for all. They are the future of our country, and they are full of hope and determination.

No Voice Too Small: Fourteen Young Americans Making History by Jeanette Bradley

★★★★☆ 4.8 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 20268 KB

Screen Reader: Supported

Print length : 22 pages

In this book, you will meet fourteen of these young leaders. You will learn about their stories, their work, and their dreams for the future. You will be inspired by their courage, their compassion, and their unwavering belief in the power of change.

These young Americans are making history. They are the ones who will shape the future of our country and the world. They are the ones who will create a more just, sustainable, and equitable world for all.

Meet the fourteen young Americans making history:

1. Xiye Bastida is a climate activist who has spoken at the United Nations and met with world leaders to demand action on climate change.
2. Isra Hirsi is a climate activist who co-founded the US Youth Climate Strike and has been featured in Time magazine and on The Ellen DeGeneres Show.
3. Autumn Peltier is a water activist who has spoken at the United Nations and has been awarded the International Children's Peace Prize.
4. Vic Barrett is a social justice advocate who works to end mass incarceration and police brutality.
5. Raquel Willis is a transgender activist who works to end discrimination and violence against transgender people.
6. Dylan Marron is a disability rights activist who works to make the world more accessible and inclusive for people with disabilities.
7. Mari Copeny is a youth activist who has raised money for Flint, Michigan's water crisis and has met with President Obama.
8. Zariya Allen is a youth activist who has spoken at the March for Our Lives and has been featured in The New York Times and on CNN.

9. Najma Osman is a refugee activist who works to help refugees resettle in the United States.
10. Malala Yousafzai is a Nobel Peace Prize laureate who works to promote education for girls around the world.
11. Greta Thunberg is a climate activist who has sailed across the Atlantic Ocean and spoken at the United Nations to demand action on climate change.
12. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez is a member of the US House of Representatives and a leading voice for the Green New Deal.
13. Ilhan Omar is a member of the US House of Representatives and a leading voice for social justice and economic justice.
14. Ayanna Pressley is a member of the US House of Representatives and a leading voice for racial justice and economic justice.

These are just a few of the many young Americans who are making history. They are the ones who will shape the future of our country and the world. They are the ones who will create a more just, sustainable, and equitable world for all.

How you can get involved

There are many ways to get involved in the work of these young leaders. You can donate to their organizations, volunteer your time, or simply spread the word about their work. You can also use your voice to speak out about the issues that they are fighting for.

Together, we can create a better future for our country and the world.

No Voice Too Small: Fourteen Young Americans Making History

by Jeanette Bradley

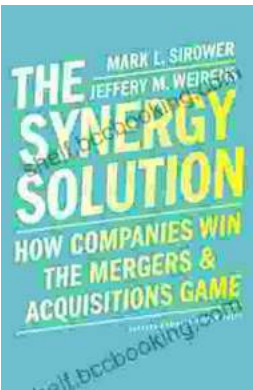

★★★★☆ 4.8 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 20268 KB

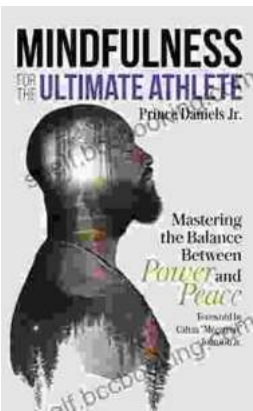

Screen Reader : Supported

Print length : 22 pages

How Companies Win the Mergers and Acquisitions Game: Unlocking the Secrets to Extraordinary Outcomes

In today's dynamic and ever-evolving business landscape, mergers and acquisitions (M&A) have become increasingly strategic for companies...

Mastering The Delicate Balance Between Power And Peace

In today's ever-evolving world, the interplay between power and peace has become increasingly complex and crucial. From personal relationships to global politics, striking the...