Mulan: The Warrior Princess

Mulan is a beloved figure in Chinese folklore. When her father is called to fight in the war against the Huns, she disguises herself as a man and takes his place. Through her courage and skill, Mulan leads her army to victory, saving her country from invasion.

Boudicca: The Celtic Queen

Boudicca was a powerful Celtic queen who led a rebellion against the Roman Empire. After her husband's death, she rallied her people to fight for their freedom. Boudicca's army burned and looted Roman cities, but was eventually defeated. She remains a symbol of resistance and resilience.

Joan of Arc: The Maid of Orleans

Joan of Arc was a young peasant girl who led the French army to victory against the English in the Hundred Years' War. She claimed to have received visions from God, which instructed her to save France. Joan of Arc was captured and burned at the stake, but her legacy as a national heroine lives on.

Other Inspiring Tales

The book Heroic Girls From World Folklore features many other inspiring tales, including:

- Tomoe Gozen, a female samurai warrior from Japan
- Nzinga of Ndongo and Matamba, a powerful African queen
- Grace O'Malley, an Irish pirate queen
- Sacajawea, a Native American woman who served as a guide for Lewis and Clark
- Harriet Tubman, a conductor on the Underground Railroad

These stories are not only entertaining, but they also offer valuable lessons about courage, determination, and the power of girls to make a difference in the world. Heroic Girls From World Folklore is a must-read for anyone who loves a good adventure story, or for anyone who wants to learn more about the amazing women who have shaped our history.
