Synopsis

Prepare to be swept away by Lynsay Sands' latest installment in her beloved Argeneau vampire series. Meant To Be Immortal transports you to a realm where passion, danger, and the supernatural intertwine.

Deep within the ancient Carpathian Mountains, a centuries-old vampire named Wulfric Argeneau embarks on a perilous quest. Driven by a prophecy foretelling his true love's imminent reincarnation, he sets out to find her, unaware that fate has already set its course.

Meanwhile, in the bustling city of Boston, Dr. Genevieve "Vivi" Devereaux unknowingly holds the key to Wulfric's destiny. As a brilliant scientist and empath, Vivi possesses a rare ability that draws her to the supernatural world. When she crosses paths with the enigmatic vampire, their lives become irreversibly entwined.

As Wulfric and Vivi navigate their newfound connection, they face formidable obstacles. Ancient enemies, envious rivals, and the very nature of their immortal existence threaten to tear them apart. Yet, amidst the chaos, their love burns brighter than ever before.

In a world where time is both a blessing and a curse, Wulfric and Vivi must confront their pasts, embrace their present, and fight for a future together. Will their love endure the test of centuries or will destiny prevail?
