About the Book

The Corsican Brothers is a thrilling historical fiction novel that follows the intertwined destinies of the Fabiani twins, Lucien and Louis. Set against the backdrop of 19th century France, the story unfolds as a captivating tale of revenge, honor, and the search for identity.

When Lucien is brutally murdered, his twin brother Louis embarks on a perilous journey to avenge his death. Along the way, he encounters a cast of unforgettable characters, including a beautiful countess, a cunning duelist, and a mysterious stranger who may hold the key to the twins' true origins.

As Louis delves deeper into the mystery surrounding his brother's death, he uncovers a web of secrets and deceptions that threaten to tear the Fabiani family apart. Through it all, the unbreakable bond between the twins shines as a beacon of hope and determination.
