Rhymes That Sing and Soar

The book's enchanting rhymes are a symphony of words, carefully crafted to engage young minds and ignite their imaginations. Each page is a poetic journey, filled with vivid imagery and playful language. The rhymes dance off the page, inviting readers to sing along and create their own stories.

THERE ONCE WAS A PUFFIN
Oh, there once was a Puffin Just the shape of a muffin
And he lived on an island in the bright blue sea
He ate little fishes
That were most delicious,
And he had them for supper
And he had them for tea.

But this poor little Puffin,
He couldn't play nothin'
For he hadn't anybody
To play with at all.
So he sat on his island
And he cried for a while, and He felt very lonely,
And he felt very small.

Then along came the fishes,
And they said, "If you wishes,
You can have us for playmates,
Instead of for tea!"

So they now play together,
In all sorts of weather,
And the Puffin eats pancakes, Like you and like me.
