Eva, a spirited and intelligent Jewish girl, lives in occupied Paris with her loving family. Her world is shattered when the Nazis begin rounding up Jews and sending them to concentration camps. Françoise, a compassionate and curious French girl, witnesses the horrors firsthand as her father risks his life to help Jewish families escape. One fateful day, their paths collide when Eva's family is forced into hiding and Françoise becomes their unlikely protector.

As the war rages on, Eva and Françoise must navigate the treacherous landscape of occupied France, dodging Nazi patrols and relying on the kindness of strangers. Along the way, they encounter unspeakable horrors and moments of unexpected grace. Eva's unwavering determination to survive and Françoise's selfless courage inspire them to fight for a future amidst the darkness.

Yellow Star*, penned by esteemed author Jennifer Roy, is a captivating historical fiction that transports readers to the heart of one of the most turbulent periods in human history. It is a testament to the indomitable spirit of those who endured the Holocaust and a poignant reminder of the importance of hope in the face of adversity.
